2nd offense: $100.00 fine.

3rd offense: disqualification.

21. RE-RIDES AND RE-RIDE STOCK

- a. Re-rides shall be in accordance with the INFR and PRCA Rules.
- b. A contestant may be given a re-ride if animal gets out of chute into arena.
- c. Re-ride horses/bulls will be drawn in order 1, 2, and 3. If re-rides are given, animals will be used in that order. Contestant shall notify judge immediately of this decision. Judges shall mark and announcers shall announce marking of the contestant, which allows him the option of a re-ride.
- d. Stock drawn for re-rides, but not used, may be placed in the draw for the next go-round.
- e. Re-rides given will be taken during the same performance such re-ride was given and during the same event in which it is given, if possible, except in the case of injuries or unusual circumstances.
- f. If re-ride stock is used up, any additional re-rides needed shall be drawn from next available unused animals. Under these conditions, animal will be ridden at the discretion of the chute boss in concurrence with judges.
- g. Any animal that required a re-ride due to inferior performance at any previous INFR is permanently ineligible for stock selection at any subsequent INFR.

22. PICKUP MEN

- a. Positions will be designated by chute boss or stock contractor.
- b. Pick-up men must remain at these points until animal has come out of chute and shall not give assistance until the expiration time has elapsed or contestant has disqualified, whichever comes first.

23. TIE DOWN ROPING

- a. Extra calves shall be roped from a horse and tied down after each performance. The roping chute boss and stock contractor will be responsible to have, at all times, at least two extra calves that were roped and tied no later than the previous day. Times should be recorded.
- b. If previously arranged between roping chute boss and Tie Down Roping spokesman, missed calves or calves that get up, will be thrown by hand and tied.

- c. Order of roping shall be drawn for by the Arena Secretary. Changes in order to split horses must be made through the secretary and judges one hour prior to the performance and must be filed with the secretary. Contestant failing to comply with this Rule shall be fined $50.00.
- d. All contestants must have their chains on their tie downs covered, if it applies to other timed events, this will also fall under the rest of the timed events.
- e. Tie-Down Roping-1 loop Rule in accordance with section R7.6.2 . Only one loop will be permitted, catch-as-catch-can, and should the roper miss, he must retire and will be marked no time. Roping the calf without releasing the loop from the hand is not permitted. No roper shall be allowed to use two loops.

24. CALVES

- a. There will be sufficient cattle to complete the go-round. The calf roping chute boss, in concurrence with the judges, and event spokesman will designate the extra calves to be cut and will list by number the order in which these calves will be used, if necessary.
- b. If a calf gets out of the chute before the roper has called for calf or barrier fails to work so that official time is not recorded, the roper with that calf drawn will take the calf designated by the judges as first extra in the bunch and rope it at that performance during the calf roping, if possible.

25. STEER WRESTLING

- a. Extra steers shall be bulldogged from a horse and thrown down after each performance if arranged between roping chute boss, stock contractor, and steer wrestling spokesman. The roping chute boss and stock contractor will be responsible to ensure that there are at least three extra steers available that have been so bulldogged no later than the previous day. Times should be recorded.
- b. For cattle not thrown down after the performance, the roping chute boss in cooperation with stock contractor and steer wrestling spokesman, will be responsible to have them thrown.
- c. Steer Wrestling - 1 Jump Rule in accordance with section R7.7.1.1. A Steer Wrestler may only Jump one time during the Steer Wrestling. An attempt (where the Steer Wrestler does not leave his horse) to jump does not constitute a jump.
- d. Order of contesting will be set by the Arena Secretary and Judges to split the run on horses, staying as close as possible to the order of the drawn positions. Changes in order must be made through the secretary and judges one hour prior to the performance and must be filed with the rodeo secretary. Contestant failing to comply with this Rule shall be fined $50.00.

26. STEERS

- a. There shall be sufficient cattle to complete a go-round. Steers for use in the contest will be cut before the rodeo by the roping chute boss or designee. As many steers as necessary may be cut off the light end. Cattle to be replaced if they become crippled or sick.

- b. The roping chute boss in concurrence with the judges will list by number the order in which the extra steers will be used if necessary.
- c. Steers will be cut before the rodeo and the steers will be kept in the same pens throughout the rodeo. Extra steers shall be added because of sick or crippled steers.
- d. If a steer gets out before the steer wrestler has called for him or barrier fails to work so that the official time is not recorded, the steer wrestler with that steer drawn will take the steer designated as first extra in the bunch and bulldog him at that performance during the steer wrestling, if possible.

27. TEAM ROPING

- a. Order of roping shall be the order as drawn or determined by times. Changes in order to split horses must be made through the Arena Secretary and judges one hour prior to the performance and must be filed with the secretary. Contestants failing to comply with this Rule shall be fined $50.00.
- b. Steers for use in the contest will be cut before the rodeo by the roping chute boss. The light end of the cattle will be used for extras to replace cattle that get crippled or sick.
- c. The roping chute boss in concurrence with judges will list by number the order in which the extra steers will be used if necessary.
- d. Steers will be cut before the rodeo and shall be kept in the same pens throughout the rodeo. Extra steers shall be added because of sick or injured animals.
- e. If a steer gets out before the team has called for it or barrier fails to work so that official time is not recorded, the team with that steer drawn will take the steer designated as the first extra in the bunch and rope it at that performance during the team roping, if possible.
- f. Extra steers to be roped and ready for next go-round as scheduled and arranged by roping chute boss and team roping spokesperson.
- g. Tie on rule is in effect for heelers consistent with the INFR and PRCA rules and criteria.
- h. Contestants that entered as header or heeler must rope in those same positions throughout the entire INFR (NO SWITCHING ENDS).
- i. The header is allowed one loop and the healer is allowed one loop.

28. UNNECESSARY ROUGHNESS TO CALVES OR STEERS

- a. A maximum $500 cash fine will be assessed to any contestant for unnecessary roughness to steers or calves by the judges.
- b. This will specifically include unnecessary twisting of steer wrestling steer's neck after the fall has been completed or for working calf roping horse after calf roper has been flagged.
