- a. Stock Contractor shall bring a minimum of 1 head per entry per go around and all cattle must be usable and desirable cattle.
- b. There will be a minimum of 2 extras per pen. There are 2 pens in each go round for a total minimum of 4 extras per event in the timed events. Timed Event Stock Contractor will be fined $250.00 per animal short per go-round.
- c. All cattle must be numbered, or ear tagged with numbers.
- d. All timed events will have a time limit of 30 seconds with penalties not included.
- e. All timed events, EXCEPT the Ladies Barrel Race, will be timed to the hundredths (100ths)
- f. Ladies Barrel Race will be timed to the thousandths (1000ths)
- g. There will be a 45 second time limit in the timed event box for contestant and horse. The rule will not apply if the delay is the result of the stock drawn. The fines applicable are as follows: The clock will start when the animal before the contestant leaves the arena and the arena is suitable to compete. It will stop if your drawn animal is not cooperating but will start once the animal is cooperating. The clock only stops and is not reset. The clock will not stop if contestant's horse is not cooperating. There will also be a 45 second time limit in the Ladies Barrel Racing to get your horse in the arena. The fines for these infractions are as follows:
  - 1st offense: $50 fine.
  - 2nd offense: $100 fine.
  - 3rd offense: $150 fine
  - 4th offense: $200 fine

The judge will have the discretion to instruct the contestant (and hazer if applicable) to get on a different horse if the horse is the cause of the delay. Where a prolong delay is the result of the drawn animal not cooperating in any manner, e.g. laying down, and it appears it will not cooperate, the judges, in their discretion can offer the contestant to take a spare animal.

17. STALLS

- a. Stalls will be available to all contestants at a specified price to be determined according to when a stall is reserved. The prices will differ if stalls are reserved online at INFR.org before the start of the INFR from when a stall is purchased during stall check-ins on Monday, October 23, 2023.
- b. Your horse stall cannot also be used as a tack room. Separate stalls can be purchased for use as a tack room for the price determined as per above.

20. RE-RIDES AND RE-RIDE STOCK

- a. Re-rides shall be in accordance with the INFR and PRCA Rules. In the event of a conflict with INFR and PRCA Rules and these Ground Rules these Ground Rules will apply.
- b. A contestant may be given a re-ride if animal escapes from the chute into arena.
- c. Re-ride horses/bulls will be drawn in order 1, 2, and 3. If re-rides are given, animals will be used in that order. Judges shall mark and announcers shall announce marking of the contestant, which allows him the option of a re-ride. The contestant shall notify the judge immediately if he will take the re-ride.
- d. Stock drawn for re-rides, but not used, may be placed in the draw for the next go-round.
- e. Re-rides awarded will be taken during the same performance such re-ride was awarded and during the same event in which it is given, if possible, except in the case of injuries or unusual circumstances.
- f. If re-ride stock is used up, any additional re-rides needed shall be drawn from next available unused animals. Under these conditions, animal will be ridden at the discretion of the chute boss in concurrence with judges.
- g. Any animal that required a re-ride due to inferior performance at any previous INFR is permanently ineligible for stock selection at any subsequent INFR.

21. PICKUP MEN

- a. Positions will be designated by Chute Boss.
- b. Pick-up men must remain at these points until animal has come out of chute and shall not give assistance until the expiration time has elapsed or contestant has disqualified, whichever comes first.

22. TIE DOWN ROPING

- a. Extra calves shall be run down arena after each performance. The judges and stock contractor will be responsible to have, at all times, at least two extra calves that were roped and tied no later than the previous day. Times should be recorded.
- b. Order of roping shall be drawn for by the Arena Secretary. Changes in order to split horses must be made through the secretary and judges one hour prior to the performance and must be filed with the secretary. Contestant failing to comply with this Rule shall be fined $50.00.
- c. All contestants must have their chains on their tie downs covered. This will apply to all timed events horses.
- d. In accordance with section R7.9.2, only one loop will be permitted, catch-as-catch-can, and should the roper miss, he must retire and will be marked a no time. Roping the calf without releasing the loop from the hand is not allowed.

23. CALVES

- a. There will be sufficient cattle to complete the go-round. Judges will designate the extra calves to be cut and will list by number the order in which these calves will be used, if necessary.
- b. If a calf gets out of the chute before the roper has called for calf or barrier fails to work so that official time is not recorded, the roper with that calf drawn will take the calf designated by the judges as first extra in the bunch and rope it at that performance during the calf roping, if possible.

24. STEER WRESTLING

- a. Extra steers will be run down the arena at the end of each go around. The judges and stock contractor will be responsible to ensure that there are at least three extra steers available.
- b. In accordance with section R7.10.1.1, a Steer Wrestler may only Jump one time during Steer Wrestling. An attempt (where the Steer Wrestler does not leave his horse) to jump does not constitute a jump.
- c. Order of contesting will be set by the Arena Secretary and Judges to split the run on horses, staying as close as possible to the order of the drawn positions. Changes in order must be made through the secretary and judges one hour prior to the performance and must be filed with the rodeo secretary. Contestant failing to comply with this Rule shall be fined $50.00.

25. STEERS

- a. There shall be sufficient cattle to complete a go-round. Steers for use in the contest will be cut before the rodeo by the Judges. As many steers as necessary may be cut off the light end. Cattle to be replaced if they become crippled or sick.
- b. The Judges in concurrence with the judges will list by number the order in which the extra steers will be used if necessary.
- c. Steers will be cut before the rodeo and the steers will be kept in the same pens throughout the rodeo. Extra steers shall be added because of sick or crippled steers.
- d. If a steer gets out before the steer wrestler has called for it or barrier fails to work so that the official time is not recorded, the contestant will take the steer designated as first extra in the pen and compete on it during that performance during the steer wrestling, if possible.

26. TEAM ROPING

- a. Order of roping shall be the order as drawn or determined by times. Changes in order to split horses must be made through the Arena Secretary and judges one hour prior to the performance and must be filed with the secretary. Contestants failing to comply with this Rule shall be fined $50.00.
- b. Steers for use in the contest will be cut before the rodeo by the Judges. The light end of the cattle will be used for extras to replace cattle that get crippled or sick.
- c. The judges will list by number the order in which the extra steers will be used when necessary.

- d. Steers will be cut before the rodeo and shall be kept in the same pens throughout the rodeo. Extra steers shall be added because of sick or injured animals.
- e. If a steer gets out before the team has called for it or barrier fails to work so that official time is not recorded, the team with that steer drawn will take the steer designated as the first extra in the pen and rope it at that performance during the team roping, if possible.
- f. Extra steers will be run down the arena at the end of each go around. The judges and stock contractor will be responsible to ensure that there are at least three extra steers available.
- g. Tie on rule is in effect for heelers consistent with the INFR Rules and criteria. Headers are not allowed to tie on.
- h. Contestants that entered as header or heeler must rope in those same positions throughout the entire INFR (NO SWITCHING ENDS).
- i. In accordance with Rule R7.11.1, the header is allowed one loop and the healer is allowed one loop.

27. UNNECESSARY ROUGHNESS TO CALVES OR STEERS

- a. A fine up to a maximum $500 fine will be assessed to any contestant for unnecessary roughness to steers or calves as determined by the judges.
- b. Unnecessary roughness will specifically include unnecessary twisting of steer wrestling steer's neck after the fall has been completed; working calf roping horse to unnecessarily back up or drag calf after calf roper has signaled time; or, team roper(s) unnecessarily stretching a steer after time has been signaled.

28. CONTESTANT AND STOCK CONTRACTOR PASSES

- a. Each contestant will be given a contestant pass for admission to the rodeo and barn area and will be allowed to purchase up to one companion pass during contestant check-in only.
- b. If a contestant is caught selling, exchanging and/or allowing others to use their pass to get into the rodeo, he/she will be fined a maximum of $500.00 and/or disqualified.
- c. Each employee or official will have an official identification or badge.
- d. Only contestants with passes will be allowed to use the doors to enter and exit the arena from the stall area.
- e. If a contestant needs a helper's pass one must be purchased before a pass will be provided. A companion pass or helpers pass is required to enter the stall/arena area.
- f. No contestants will be allowed access to the stock pens behind the South Point where the bucking stock is housed. Violation will result in a $100.00 fine.
